0:56:24 "We moved here in 1947."
 0:56:31 "We used to stay with my Grandpa, for about a year."
 0:56:43 "And my Grandfather's too, he lived just a ways north of here, my Godfather's land, that's where they used to live."
 0:56:57 "I was seven years old when we left there, in 1947. I was seven when we left."
 0:57:14 "We had three horses. When we moved here, the house we built, the government built for us."
 0:57:36 "1948, when we moved here, in a big house."
 0:57:49 "It was a log house."
 0:57:59 "1948 when we moved in."
 0:58:07 "Seven years old when I started school. I went to grade eight. I went upgrading, grade ten, in 1984, before I started New Dawn. I was a drug and alcohol councilor."
 0:58:11 "I worked there for twelve years."
 0:58:50 "I quit drinking for nineteen years and I don't smoke."
 0:59:06 "One of my boys works at Regina Casino."
 0:59:11 "The oldest one works at Wal-Mart."
 0:59:18 "My baby girl just took a computer course. She just finished."
 0:59:29 "I quit because of my back, my back was killing me, my legs, arthritis is killing me everything."
 0:59:56 "I'm working on that now."
 1:00:01 "I go see a doctor, he helps me."
 1:00:09 "There must have been at least 20 families that lived around here, 20-25 there used to be lots of people."
 1:00:34 "In '49 I think."
 1:00:54 "I worked with brick layers before I started with New Dawn, for quite a few years."
 1:01:06 "I mixed mud."
 1:01:18 "I lived in Yorkton."
 1:01:09 "Worked for farmers, picked roots."
 1:02:00 "Thank you."
