

Breland, Lucie (Beaudry). (1848-1907)

Lucie (Breland) Beaudry was born in St. François Xavier, on March 7, 1848, the daughter of Pascal Breland and Maria Grant. She was a grand-daughter of Cuthbert Grant, one of the leaders of the Seven Oaks conflict with the HBC. Narcisse Beaudry, from Lac Ste. Anne and St Albert, met Lucie in St Boniface during one of his Red River Brigade journeys there. They married on April 20, 1868. They lived at Fort Qu'Appelle but came back to St Albert following the Riel Resistance of 1869-70. These were very difficult times for the Métis. They built a log home by the Mission and operated a trading store there. Later they moved to a farm at Egg Lake. They had a family of eleven children. Remarkably all of them were fluent in English, Cree and French! Lucie died on January 31, 1907 at Athabasca Landing.
